

tomokan 75.76

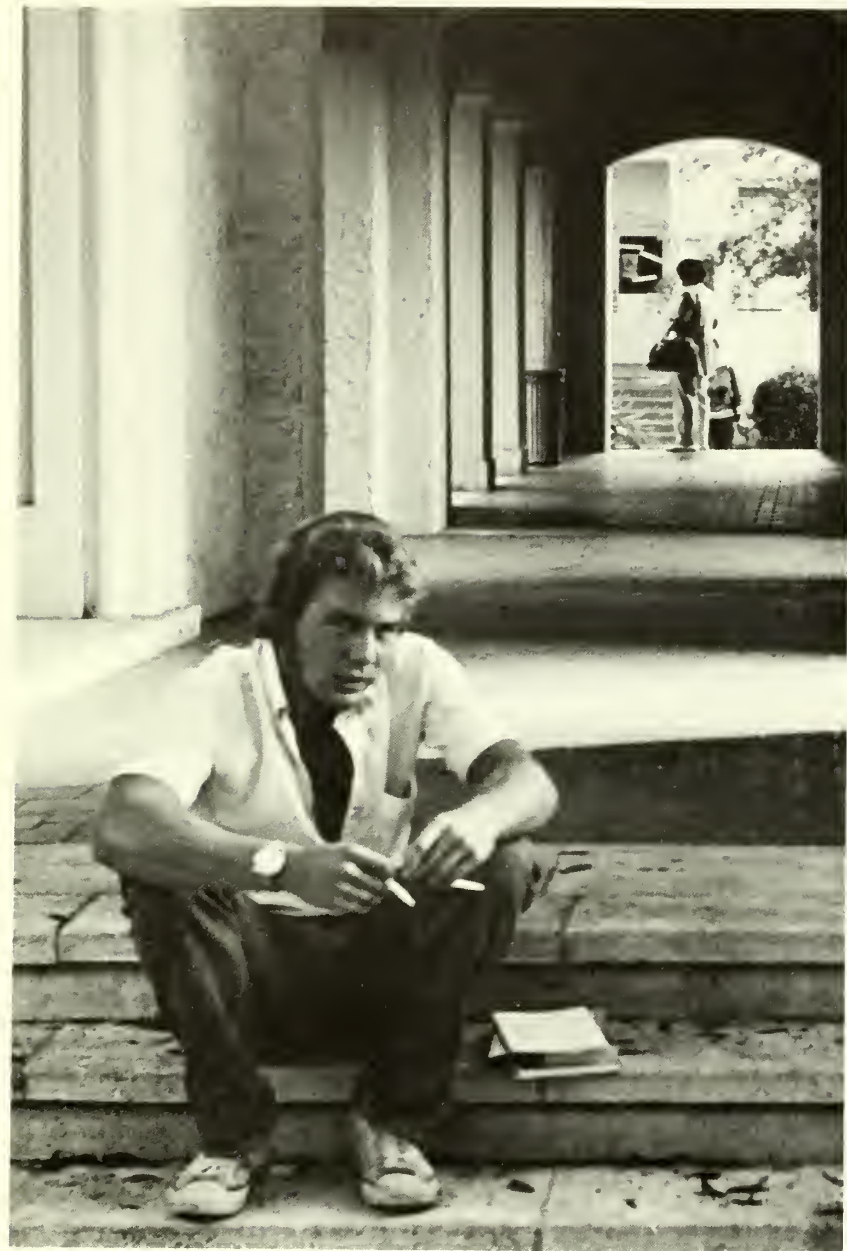

A photograph of a person with dark, wavy hair sitting on a dark wooden park bench. They are wearing a dark blue shirt and white shorts, and are barefoot. They are holding an open book and looking down at it. The bench is on a grassy area with trees in the background. The text is overlaid on the upper right and middle left of the image.

TOMOKAN 1976

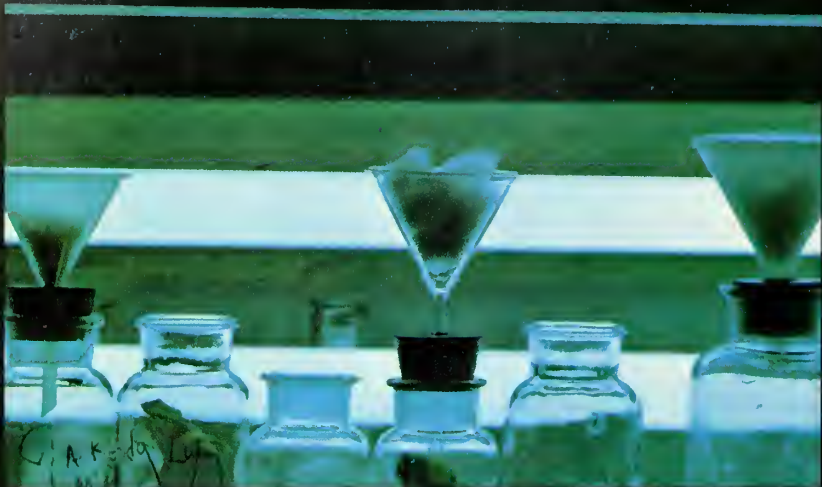

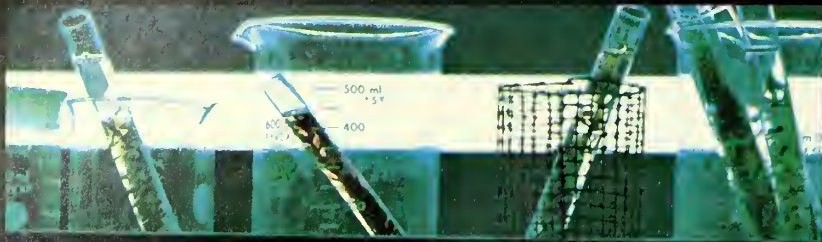

ROLLINS COLLEGE
WINTER PARK, FLORIDA

I still find each day too short for all the thoughts I want to think, all the walks I want to take, all the books I want to read, and all the friends I want to see. The longer I live the more my mind dwells upon the beauty and the wonder of the world.

John Burroughs

*Reach high, for stars lie hidden in your soul.
Dream deep, for every dream precedes the goal.*

Pamela Vaull Starr

Hitch your wagon to a star.
Ralph Waldo Emerson

Becky, is it true that two guys are better than one? You never get BUSCHed, did you Susan . . . Liz, you can swing on the course and on the course . . . Dee, when in Rome, did you so as the Romans do? Fran, did anyone ever tell you you're cracked? Sallie, is life really better in the outside world? Cindy, does Alan keep you in working order? Tab, Tab, Tab, really now Betsy, can't there be anything else? Patti, whatever happened to that mystery man from the summer? . . . Sure, we believe you!! Who's that doctor you hang around with, Deb? Huh?? Vickie, why did you buy a rug cleaner for Sissy and Tina? Sunni, you're not too SWIFT at answering the telephone, are you? Real Estate, diving, is there anything you can't do Gail? Pam, were you ROBbing cradles or just stealing GRAVES?? Barb (alias Barbino, Woodstock, Buzzard, the C.I.A.), has your new image caused any new "develop"ments?? Lynn, when you were at Harpers, did you ever find Tom Collins? Michelle, you really go for those basketball players, don't you? Shelley, will you use karate to defend your cases? Jean, are you trying out for the invisible senior award? Sarah, what draws you to the third floor of Bush? — Chemistry?? Tina, what does go on by the combo door? Hmmm . . . Cathy (Radical) what's the attraction in Atlanta? Scarbrough fair?? How did you sprain your wrist Lennette? Fighting off the piano . . . Mike Nan, what is it you do instead of going to classes? Marchetta, foxylady, what's up? Using a lot of tissues?? Jill, what does Paul think about you being the Mother of nineteen girls? Lori, you talk too much . . . especially when we take you for a road trip!! Dana, what do you hear from you room besides "Chi O, Chi O . . . ???" Mrs. Cathy, there sure is a big difference between Steve and Patti as roommates isn't there? Sissy, why didn't you try out for b-ball? (Stop it, stop it!!) . . . Lydia, do you watch Mr. Ed and eat popcorn every week? Denise, do you get MOORE out of life at the TKE house? Hey Tyler, (or is Tyler HAY) does creme de menthe mix with wine? What is it you do, Shirley, with all that shaving cream? Kim, went to eat at the Beef and Bottle, but ended up at Morrison's!! Heidi, hey Super Chicken, how about cleaning up the coop?? Stay tuned . . . same place, same time next year and remember, nuts of a feather, crack together!!!!!!

Katie Noyes—Which would you prefer? A soccer player or a "Ressler?"

Debbie—"We had an argument so I came home." Rollins Baseball Fan.

Kathy—Her feet and heart are sunk in Clay.

Lynn Walsworth—Buzzing around in her blue Mustang over to holt.

Noel—She alternated between being the Fonz, The Baseball Team's Greatest Fan and a frequent Holt Hall partyer.

Cindy—She caught the "Fish" hook, line and sinker. Congratulations!

Karen Bleckner—Buzzing around in her Capri, experiencing the world during Winter Term, Karen never has a dull moment!

Bobbie—A little Lee her, a little Lee there, a cute couple who go everywhere.

Lynn Bacigalupi—She Rushed right off and joined A.R.T. What happened with Biology?

Katie Curtin—Hotlips, peanut butter and jelly, "Tabaholic," sailing on a Saturday afternoon.

Rosie—"Oh, I have to call Rodi." "All My Children" freak.

Carla—Peek-a-boo, we see you at the A.R.T. box office or taking notes in Student Court.

Pam—"I've declared today a holiday, sleep in the morning, baseball games in the afternoon." Second floor rowdie.

Vickie—Our wild Irish rose with a New York accent. By George, I think you've got it.

Jo—Another world traveler, a new needlepoint design each week, and one of the best Chi O's of all time! A teacher and a friend.

Nancy—Our woman in the working world. "Cokeaholic" San Jose is okay, how's Mike?

Pat—"Tennis, anyone?" How many T shirts do you have—two thousand or three thousand???

Lorrie—"Let's order pizza, with a little wine." "Cleo" patra—queen of the Nile.

Allison—Another of our world travelers, our phantom Chi O.

Mary King—Little Mary Sunshine, which one of your admirers are you going out with tonight?

Katie Heffernan—"Twinkle Toes" Move over Gelsy Kirkland cause here she comes! Run into any money lately????

Polly—Polly, are you going to take over Patty's job as the "voice" of Chi O?

Carol—She and Tom roughhousing in the living room, in the Beanery, in class. . . .! A laugh that is quite unique!!

Patti—Look you guys, I don't know how to say this (pause) but I love three things, my family, my music, and Tom.

Kathy Yoder—Though we don't see her often, we hear we're in for a summer party. Good luck Charlie, she's a lot to handle!

Joanne—"New York, New York a fabulous town, La Bronx was up and the Battery down." Nordette becomes the new Nancy Drew as she pays a visit to the Alabama Hotel. Please don't get caught in any more fences!

Becca—"Who's Solzhenitsyn? Was he an old Redskin?" Pompom and cheer-leading queen of the second floor.

Mary Glascock—Oh man, oh man, oh man, gag me please. The marathon party (12 hours long) was a blast!

Hope—Yearbook editor hangs out with writer who poses as data processor. Talked on the phone lately, Hope?

Lynne Barlett—Bart is our softball star who loves popcorn late at night. Congratulations to our brilliant new president!!

Gail—Curler queen in the living room learning the Bustop on the cruise, F.R. Michele—Sunning or studying are her hobbies. "Sure, I'll cut your hair."

Michele leaps over the fence and leaves others to jaws of vicious dog. Thanks a lot!!!

Bibby—I'll have Chinese food, then chocolate chip cookies, ice cream, salad, then dinner. And don't forget to include the BONES!!!!

Robin—Robin's taken up a new musical instrument. She plays the Sachs!

Kent—"Pat, do you want to play tennis?" "Let's bump to some David Bowie."

Peggy—Charlie and baseball games, fun times in McKean and Holt!

Karen Nissen—Give me an R, give me an O, give me an L, give me another L.!

To the Pledges:

"Our house is a very, very, fine house, with two "cats" in the yard, life used to be so hard, but everything is easy 'cause of you."

Take care, work hard, have fun, you're the best, and never forget that we love you all!

The Kappa Alpha Order made it through one more year, or close to it. With the strongest class of the Order leaving this year, the KA's will have to struggle to maintain their fine Southern spirit and reputation. Such notables as Retardo, Squid, Wolf, and the Burger will be off to bigger and hopefully better things.

Squid found an Octopus, while Wolfe cannot be found (alone). Claude (or is it Clod?) is still in his endless search for a friend. The only two possibilities are the brain sisters, SuSu and Suzie. Wally can't believe he's still alive after last night. Smack is still taking out his frustrations on balls, while Hadder is playing Devine. President Retardo, after making a shambles of the Student Association, proved that the Marines are not looking for a few good men. The Torch has burned both ends and is still cooking. C Bob and Belly are back from Australia, sometimes. The Burger has had a social nightmare for the entire year. Freshman orientation is over, Burg.

The Junior class vagabonds are disappearing slowly, but surely. Tino was deported, leaving Scoop with Hickeys. Homer is the worst. Tim took the big step, but in what? We know what Dennis stepped into. Cabell, alias Puke Williams, has a (m) itch, but no one believes it. Peter and Clyde are still sleeping and eating together. Jim "the Moe" Peak has gambled his future and everyone else's, away. Harvard completed his 5th straight semester on academic probation. Gordie puked on Jeremy. Jeremy turned the other cheek, with his shadow right behind.

Leading the sophomore class through havoc is Bart. He's left his Derylict for better things. (What could be worse?) Bird and the Beeze have the oven ready for Schtick Glik. Shubert was seen frantically looking up certain diseases in the library. Morgan Crook has moved to a mobile home with his wife and kid. Daddy? Andy is still shaking, and can't figure out why he gets no respect. Peter Juan switched roommates. Our mate Smusher is on the Banks waiting for it to snow. Dillon, bumming after losing Pat Sobol, won't have a Query in the world. Finn McFin left after learning his 2.0 wasn't one the 4.0 scale. He must have a Jinx on him.

As for the Pledges. Whoosh! If the future of the Order is in their hands, we may as well bag it now and save time. Chip gets the bad driver award for the year. Ted's bumming about the KA sports program. Rob is in a daze, with Chris close behind. Jeff, is he coming or going? Marc is the only hope for sanity. Sly has been commuting to and from the slopes of Miami. Mick, where are you? Dink and J. Clark want Grier and Zale respectfully. Flash! Wolf announced his engagement to the duck hunter.

It hardly seemed that a year had passed since my last return, nevertheless it was once again time to make my annual visit to THE HOUSE. As I entered the house, my attention was drawn to the Chapter Room only to see "The Sponge" soaking a few down while Crowley explained his Ireland trip. Over in the corner Federico was complaining about the music at the partie, "I want some music I can move to man, you know what I mean." Just then Waits entered talking about his love life, "There is only one Barb now, you guys." I moved into the pro shop only to find Lee on his way out, "I'll be out at Sheoah, be back at five." Suddenly Westwood entered yelling "Where's Crispi?" as Batts followed crying, "Westwood, you idiot, I'll kill you." As I turned to make my way out and to continue down the first floor, I found Earhart asking for Skip. I wondered what was wrong now. Continuing down, I noticed Clay and Kathy leaving on another honeymoon for the weekend. Jealous, I moved into Yetter's room and heard calls of "Jimmy" while Coleman departed the room for some fresh air. Not wanting to bother Yetter, I figured Pimping Joe would have some wonderful words of wisdom. Entering the room, I found Goodie talking about the series, "Boston in five, Joe, and now I have to go see my little friend." However, Joe was concerned about the well-being of the fraternity, "You're talking about brotherhood—a human element, you guys."

Venturing up to the "Stereo Center," the chant of "The Hook" filled the air, while Wadso was explaining, "L.J., Skin and now me, I just don't understand it, must be the room." Across the hall in Steeler country the President was explaining the aspects of scooping, "I'm on a hot streak you guys." Suddenly, my eyes caught Ernie in a Karate demonstration screaming, "Eddie, you're a b——. No one tells me what to do except my parents, you pimp." Meanwhile, Touch was bumping on Benny's door, "Open up, Benny, it's me." Disturbed over all the noise, Benny ran out yelling, "I'll drop someone like a bad habit." While over in Eddie's room, I found the big guy learning Greek and informing everyone, "My act's clean Bras, but how about yours?" Hesitantly, I moved slowly to the next room, and there is Chuckles saying, "Mike, I haven't heard from Bonnie yet and I'm scared." Meanwhile, Fogie was trying to get Ernie to spring for a pizza as he tried to clean up his act, "Yaun's guys are rude, it's not what you think—we're just friends." Passing by the bathroom, I found Kiwor and Munson foofing up their hair. Down at the end of the hall was Zeke talking about pledgship to Matz, "Who is he, must be a fool." However, Matz's attention was on some wholesome food, even though he knew eggroll was better. Across the hall Moon had the pledges lined up, "Let's Chug. Ah, kiss my Irish a—— you lightweights." Next door, Skinny was predicting the game, "Dallas vs Pittsburgh, I'll be back in sixty seconds." As I headed for the third floor, Cahall wanted to know, "Has Eldo left for Karate yet?" While DeRoche asked, "Who wants to go skiing when I get back from the carle?"

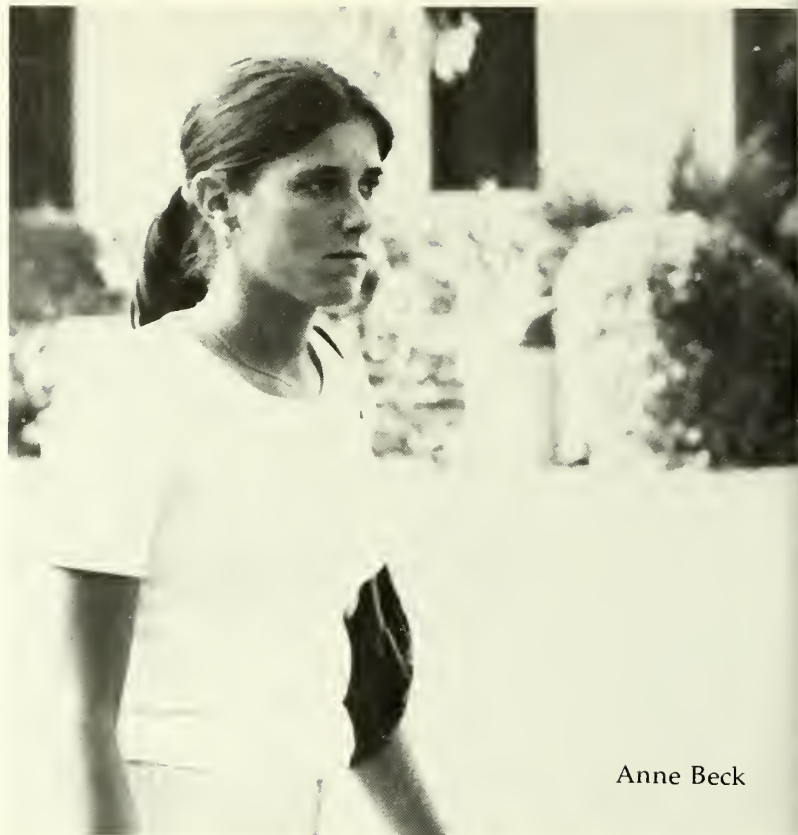

As I climbed up to the third floor, the clouds were forming as Jake's voice echoed, "Na na na na, wake up you mothers, we're gonna party." No doubt the infamous wrecking crew had been present. Lorenzo wanted to know who was "pimping his a——" but all Gary could answer was, "I'm not 6-5½, I'm 6-5⅞." Meanwhile, Bianco was teaching Chumley, "Sit Chumley-good dog Chumley." At the same time Little Bianco was warning Steve, "If Washington doesn't come through we're hurting." And over in the corner, Howland was hurting from a tough night scoring—both on and off the court. As I searched for the Taylor, the day came to an end. As I reached the back door, I saw the future—sixteen faces to whom I could only say, "If you ain't a Lambda, you ain't s——!"

In the year of our Bicentennial and the Olympics, we could hardly be satisfied with anything but the best. In keeping with the spirit of achievement, the members of NCM each gave their all in surpassing the average.

C. R. made us all proud by single handedly acquiring, popping, and consuming more kernels of corn ever before thought possible. Cynde never let us down by proving there is always one more bone to break, sprain, or crack anytime, anyplace, anywhere. . . . Curraay could be found in between the big and the little one while Notman was tying one on. . . . Carol never missed a single day of "All my whatever" or her appendage Tommy. . . . Wallstreet was dumfounded when chive dip stock kept soaring—no wonder Anne never let a day go by without it. . . . she has personal interest in it's future . . . Carmen made more trips to Jacksonville ever before recorded and all this time we thought it was really because she liked boats. . . . P.B. became the Queen of the Hooverites and her low-rent rendezvous, Hoove drew the tub???? Meat Loafed home for a hooverectomy, but was crowned Queen Crustaceae instead with the most soaps to occur in a year's time. . . . Susu became a social member of A.A. but learned about tequilla and dirty old men the hard way . . . Diane will officially receive the one and only "Out to Lunch Weekender Award" for her outstanding performances upside-down and cross-eyed at Golden Lakes and every other social function in the past four years. . . . Sally alias Leverne Fiffi Jayson never can "go for it!" without her bottle of rum . . . Joan specialized in "Chateau to go" and will be awarded Rm. 402 next year . . . Sarah, is it rue you hide your boots under your bed??? . . . Struthers, which would you choose, sweet or sour citrus fruit??? . . . Caroline we welcome you back!? . . . Cipolla, not to be content with New Symrna, tried out the waves and men at Sydney U. . . . S.A.B.O. got too loaded and fell off her shoe . . . "I forgot my duty!" . . . At 1210 Arlington there was late night entertainment of "true Southern Gentlemen" with Susie drowning in the SEA-SEA but making an O'PAULing Winter Term recovery. . . . meanwhile, Cathy decided that the shoe didn't fit and went on to WHITE-r pastures. . . . At Andrea's Chevy Chase Club on Maryland Ave., she's awaiting the arrival of that new Chevy any day now. . . . Wendy and Chris drank more Guinness and counted more sheep than any full-blooded Irishman. . . . All year Peak never stopped singing Bob-Bob-Bob-Bob-er ran . . . Rose, we heard you were running for Madam President next year!?. . . . Katie, we're still wondering if the rumor's true that you're a party crow . . . Beth we hear rumors concerning a certain Goombay punch . . . Mika where do Hu-Go when you head towards Fort Lauderdale?? Our dear president deserves more than any of us the honored 4 M award for her never failing support in everything we did . . . that could perhaps be due to the fact that she suggested everything we did . . . she's a credit to her race and I doubt we'll ever forget her.

Congratulations to our 16 new members. You all have a tough tradition to uphold and we're confident you can handle it. Our only worry is that it takes you 5 minutes to chug ½ of a beer. . . . Good-bye to the best bunch of seniors ever.

PHI DELTA THETA

Happy Days are here again, not only everyday, Monday through Friday at 11:30 but in the day to day lives of the Phi Delts. The diversity of the brothers continually raises excitement and noise level which the neighbors can testify. It seems the only way to control the rowdies is to send them overseas or down the street. Everyone has a common bond, that is to stay loose in their own way, of course. The "Phighs" can always say that trout-fishing season lasts all year long. The beer consumption is at an all time high. The amount of suds and water from the hoses we pulled on our saturated attackers, which the house has soaked up is a permanent reminder of the great floods of beer and women. There is no reason to ask, what's going on tonight, just hang around, someone is always on the verge of making one of their claims of fame.

Eph, which is actually B.D.F.E., has been rustling Phi Moo's for 3 years now, but he finds it hard to get them down in the back seat of his Capri. Father George is quite unhappy with us and has blessed the rest of the pledge class with a black ball, "This is WGod on your dial." Domer went "real" fishing and "ironnically" lost his bait. Maybe if he goes "trout fishing" he'll get better results. Kenbo makes the most of his vacations, he takes off a week early and returns a week late, we wonder where he's been parking that trailer. Pinnocchio needs to trade in his brown nose muff for some smoked trout, it will make you a better student. Pele drinks, tokes and jokes, saying the wrong things at the wrong time, all the time. Bird legs taste good but they are hard to find at home in the nest now-a-days. Mike alias, Alki one, gets into "line off" but never takes his slalom through the course. Grabowskie, congratulations for his talented effort in turning in on his "high Phi." Steph we can only offer a warning that a Rhode Island Pet license is no good in Florida. "Say" Sam we heard you took the wife for a walk down Park Ave. and ended up in the Mole Hole. Timmy, congratulations for making the cast on Mission Impossible: he will self-destruct in one term. "Bag out of here." Wanted: Billy McCalmont (alias "Wild Willy") Danger, should be approached with extreme caution if intoxicated (1 beer). Sheriff Killjoy is still trying to get respect, but John what do you expect from 4' 10 and Kathy McKean. The nickname Zero not only describes his noise level tolerance but also the number of times he lost at Chess or is it the number of nights Hank Aaron's greatest hits wasn't played on his door. Coach Whale inclined to stay on top of things, went from a Porsche to a Mercedes and back, only to find the grass is greener on the 4th. Hud definitely has the spirit of '76, you can see it in his eyes: red, white, and blue. "Say buddy, just sit back and enjoy the view." A "Pissant" can buy his way into the frat with 100 bucks but finds it hard to buy love with a necklace. "Silly" Pissants makes big splashes on parked cars. "Silly, Silly" Glen has no hips and no girls, but then he never had either one to begin with. Will, the most respected Pres. we ever had. It's too bad he can't sell himself as well as he sells his Electrolux's. "But guys, this isn't a sales pitch." Andy Eberle, we miss his mouth, but he couldn't take his only experience. We wonder if the love life in South America is hot and "boyleing" over. We've always wondered if Andy Stephens is the man of the house (Phi Mu), but now we know, did you enjoy your Valentines Candy? John Davis is finally under 200 and can be found on weekend trips to H.S.B. saying "Breaker 1-9, this is your good buddy in Marlboro Country." The only "sweet" grapefruit we know is Dave Pearson, we were sure that the I.R.A. wouldn't miss. Steve Miller has been doing much of his own thing this year, but has contributed plenty to the brother in the Pub. Kelvy, we know you're the fastest man in town, when are the little Costins coming? Big Poppa Rob, the jazzhound, will sniff it out even if it means going to Buena Vista. We didn't know Count Basie played at Ronnies. John Clixby is hung with a wild pantsuit outfit and can't wait to be taken to the cleaners. Peter Puck Powell, we like all the good deals you're getting us, (wink, wink). What'll you get out of us next . . . not an office. Our very own Evil Kenival tried to play "king" on the sand, and lost it. Paul Scoopinacci has always said bikes are more fun to ride. Bubs is still looking for his first date, suffering a major setback, Mini turned him down. The phantom Phi, Smith McBenners, has returned as Joe Fraternity (he thinks). All in all things have been unpredictable as usual.

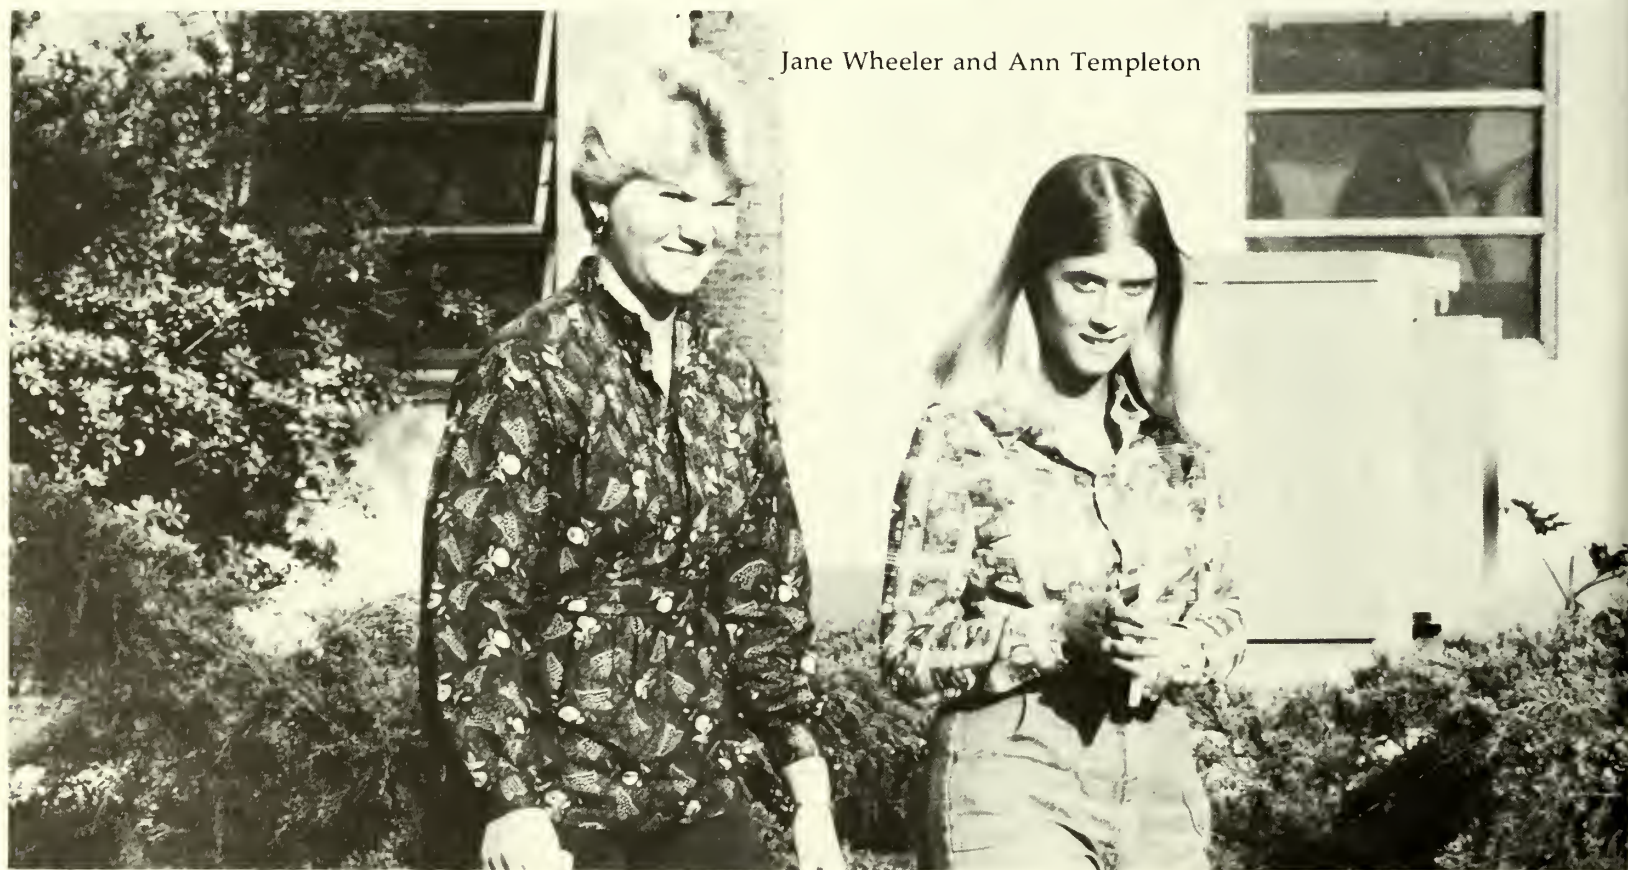

Somebody should have warned the pledges what the whole thing is about. It's impossible to describe such a versatile group. The frat is proud of the few young men who have already said in their own way, All for one and one for all.

The Phi Mulets are still blossoming in the restaurant business despite the recession . . . Liza B., our traveling saleswoman, resigned from rush to sell bathroom tumblers. . . . Sally's elegant recital and reception towards the Christmas season even included an escort—what an affair! While love tunes, Christmas carols flowed throughout the house—we hope y'all had a very merry white Christmas! Meanwhile, in Tampa, "Have you seen Gooney?" Joni aid casually . . . "I miss my Big Max". . . . but Tina gets Frito-Layed her way, it's toe-curling good! . . . by the way, girls, keep it hot and popping around the house! . . . Woolaver and Smithlet, how do your gardens grow? . . . with Larrys and Garys, and Steves and Weeds. . . . they're all good for your diets! Speaking of food, Alison's birthday cake was, ummmm, so delectable, and Low and Behold, Doug showed up. . Now Barb, isn't that crewed? Gaw said BeForehand, let's live in Gainsville . . . now Debbie is that Weisser? . . . There were two men from Kentucky, Andy is lucky and Hub is just ducky, but the other two got stuck in the mucky. . . . Shelly, will he? Lois took her first trip away from home this year so she could graduate Cum Larry. . . . Meanwhile, instead of sponging in the Bahamas, Wetzel and Wistar are sponging in the Hutch. . . . unexpectedly, Jackson ate KHeath bars . . . Have you done any diving lately, Sue? . . . and Von Stein, do goobers make you our best rusher? . . . Blair Byrd flew to the theater in her Thing too much—tell them to give you back Blair, we miss you! Ellice and Holly were the orientation committee for the freshman class this year. . . . Ellice was Kirked, but Holly likes her Tomcats and Gordies . . . Cindy, we never knew how Tallanted you were until we heard you sing the "Earth Moves". . . . Meanwhile, upstairs, Barnez left the room when the midnight rider came a Colin'. . . . Wiegel, you may be Bionic, but it's hard to score with a broken finger! Our Georgia Peach, Ausbon, fermented while Brushing the John. . . . However, Sneath isn't Sad in the Sack now that she has her Freeman. . . . and Hadley was Goosed up the aisle in February—love and luck to our two brides, our ladies in white. . . . Members of V.a., you deserve a break today. . . . Pledges, may you always follow in our Great tradition!

As another year in "Pine Valley" draws to an end, it seems the soap opera will continue forever. "What will ever become of Doc and Bev? Will Honey and Honey trade in their satin sheets for boxing gloves, and what about the lil Dumper?" "Will Tim Grant ever get sick of Spanish food or is he just sitting on a hot tamale?" Hurricane Nadine swept through Rollins and blew Krough over! ". . . O.K. . . . What can I say . . . super!" "Steve Schott is still looking for a lasting relationship, but all he can come up with are a bunch of foster children!" "Who could forget Randy, Bucket, Shaft, Walrus, Barrel Face, Goodyear, Tyrannasaurus Sexless, Spare Tire Taylor. . . . We Did . . . you're insignificant!!!" "Flapps, I never knew you were allergic to cats." HOT FLASH — Dudley Race opens oil refinery — 30 wt. "AAAhh F—, Dave and Peggy, — F—" "Scoopless G got scooped, but Stein still gets a buzz from the Bee hives!" "Gomer Apple has a big nose cause air is free!" "And phantom Pener currently runs his free clinic off campus." "Chinaman has decided to grow his rice in a Sandy field!" "Piggy sighed when he couldn't fill his Christmas stocking!" BEWARE BROTHERS — The Snake will gobble your date—get the picture, Boaconchriphor!!! "Can Will find a six year plan at Valencia C.C.?" "Binny moves his kennel club off campus, but finally found a good tomato!" "Will John Matson ever take a shower?" ". . . Bock, you gave it a good try!" CONGRATULATIONS — "Pie, Ben, and Black are recent graduates of Star Fleet Academy!" "Bucks Brougham found out what it's like to be the penniless groom! . . . right stroker!" "Budd and Gary filed for divorce on the grounds that like magnets repel." "How's it going Stinkyfinger, Idlefungus, Awluldinger, believe it or not, there are girls at Rollins!" "Tommy Wood takes one drink of his secret potion and presto, all over the floor. . . COOKIE MONSTER!!" "Lee Johnson insists he's not from Nashville. by the way Lee, you seemed to have picked up your big brothers gait!" "B-wines' hopes have been Desched!" "Turkey spent too much time in Ireland, his shamrock turned green!! Look out next Thanksgiving!" "Bo, you're sooo big and Bryan, you're sooo small—Ya hams!!!" "Tiny and Frenchy, come on over and see us sometimes, we still love ya!" "Pledges—thanks for the front door, plaques, trophies, toilet seats, paper, pennies, and faucet knobs. And by the way, you stink at softball!!!!" "And Doc, no matter how hard you, try, you're still a FLAME!"

Twenty brave men and women lived and worked together this year to prove that 1) co-ed housing created a genuine adult living experience and 2) a group can exist at Rollins College whose aims were socially constructive in addition to being involvement and awareness oriented. Well, throughout the year, we had speakers appear at Pinehurst ranging from Dr. Critchfield to a teacher of the La Maz method of childbirth. We had projects including a year-long aluminum can recycling drive and a benefit Backgammon tournament for the Rollins College Child Development Center. The beautiful part of all this is that the interest and the desire to participate came from the hearts of the residents. We, the members of the Student Center for Social Concerns feel proud about the contributions we have made and for the example we have set for the rest of the campus. The S.C.S.C. will be a total success if the understanding and realization of the need for such a living-learning experience spreads throughout the campus resulting in a college full of socially mature and concerned individuals.

The Student Center for Social Concerns would like to thank the various members of the administration and faculty who supported and believed in us this year. In addition, thanks to all those speakers and non-resident students who shared their experiences and helped make our year that much richer.

Warning to all other fraternities:

The best advice is to look out for that small fraternity living at the end of Fraternity Row. After going through a year of change, which saw fewer people joining the frat, the TKE's emerged this year with a new image and a new outlook towards themselves. This proved to be "the spark" as a fantastic pledge class in both quantity and quality was taken in this year. This spark was the re-organization of the frat, which was kept in the most capable of hands, and the brother-hood which was both seen and felt by the frosh.

Our leader, Boo-Boo (cuz), finally had his "boat" come in—the question is how long was he at the dock? The commander SLACKed off quite a bit this year, but proved to be the big impetus in Rush. As far as the treasury went this year, the Hoff "had a way," but he lost it. Guess that's what comes from living over in the freshman dorm. Ed Ramey kept the books, the wife, and three paddle-happy little brothers. Wild Bill was tamed over the summer, but came back to school as wild as ever. Buffalo Ted loves Lake Geneva and brought back glasses, cards, and a badly-needed new program. He didn't help much in football, though. Spic got his kegs Winter Term, as well as Soccer Coach, but he seemed content and decided to stick with just the kegs. As for the Humble Historian, what does he do anyway — besides write "The Eagle," the scrapbook, and yearbook blurbs?

Balls and Kev stayed stoned most of the year, but learned that it's no way to keep a lounge handy. Our rabbi, Johnny B. had a raven by his door all year — good night and nevermore. David Ford is gonna be "Duke-ing" it our next year — all he needs is a roommate. He did, however, find true grit and "mor-groin" while making it here at Rollins.

To Hale and Hay — Jus' crew you two. Is God really a Tar-Heel, or just a brilliant politician? Ask Carolina, if you can find him. And if anybody does, please call the TKE house immediately. The O'B reached never-before-realized heights of mysticalism, and he and his fan club of one — Denmark — plan to go ever higher next year. Timmy went to the dogs this year . . . and Jai-Alai, and cards, and . . . was it all Bones' fault? And speaking of cards, and Amazing Silk likes everything stacked including cards, odds, and his women. Trying for a 12.0 this term. . . . Meanwhile, Finn the Eskimo, the frat latent, likes the warm weather. Why else would he keep going back to Ft. Lauderdale? Durl the Pearl proved to be this year's basketball "unknown," and everyone wonders if Gary G. ever really studies. Would he rather have a keg, or a party and a chance. . . . The Fonz fooled everybody with the egg . . . very funny, kiddo. Just wait til' next year. Al Heinermann, the frat's Barry White, can't wait to start his own group next year — "Tool and the Gang," with lead singer Denny Varel. Zephilis is catching on. Bob Coman continued the frat tradition of having at least one maniacal golfer in the ranks. Join the "club" — nice paddle. By the way, Mingo (our token Cuban), where's yours? Jeff "Herbie" Stout had WB's syndrome, but he was "de-kappa-tated" by the end of Fall Term. Wally, what are Munich women like? Or would you rather discuss Nietzsche? Clyde-O proves the All-American nice guy can finish first or at least get a great tan over Winter Term.

Vick — didn't see you much this year — get lost in New Women's? Sylvia will have to drag you over next year. Ty, how's it feel to be half of the Class of 77's graduating biologists? Deb, the Swamp Ghost, have you decided where you're going to Grad School year? Cathy D. knows where she wants to go. Fee Gee, you're just so cute! And her brothers were TKE's too! Kim, did you leave when Craig did? Clarkie, good luck next year. Have you considered the LPGA? Sunni, you are big, in our hearts. Don't be so jealous of your roommate. Duke, you were a great Sweetheart, hope you enjoyed it as much as we did! Sha, where are you?

In closing: Zeta-Phi and anyone else who was involved with us this year — we've definitely got something going in our "House on the end of Fraternity Row." Let's keep it together, and we can only continue to get bigger and better. Definitely.

"No sense makes sense." So it goes. Another year passes and fades into oblivion, uneven at the outset but gaining in strength and inevitably leaving its mark upon the sands of time. A year of transition. Out with the old and in with the new. So it goes. The Club. True defenders of the Mystic X, holding steady against the Challenges of the Guild. The Club. Let us not forget Turtle Mound, the tower snipers, psychos (Hendrix, Sully, Frankie, Flipper Joe and Spinello Joe). Monty Python, Burgers and the dryers. The year saw incumbent Reagan "drilling" for whale holes, the return of the Mad Puker, and our own Leroy, up the brook without a paddle. Club rhetoric prospered: "hey dudes, woshappnin??" "Hoover's heard a Weeda??" "Book me a passage on Flight 714, please" (sure thing, Scott) "I'm Burt, Fly me!" "Slater" "NCN'S!!" The year also saw prodigal son, Bobby Boyle recreate one of the more memorable moments from the Exorcist in the Pub Bathroom (Ah, Pubbage!); Hugo spell "Helter Skelter" on a refrigerator door (in shorthand no less!) Beezer Von Hoffman's tender, artistic portraits of Gakoomba; Kuntz and Edgar, PW'ed to the Nth degree, the return of flagpole sitting and the Eatonville Prison farm for the criminally stoned.

We lose people dear to us but new colorful faces (no pun intended, Archie) appear to fill the void. The new guys, the rookies. Joe Kensil—I thought you said you could play soccer!

Little Brother Lutz (Hooter loves his body!) and his sidekick O. D. Timmy "Ace" Brennan—Never up, never in!

Stein—Don't you ever wear clothes?

Artie Greenwood—A.A.'s MVP of 1975-1976, as well as maggots Charlie (bg with lz), Steve, Wertz, Dr. Fried Gange, Big Brett and Ted, Dickie, Danny Greene (too much grain), Chuck et al.

It was a year of pathos, ethos, retrospect, introspect, club beer, "boardin'," Spanish Johnny and water damages. The year of the $75 bellyache (Ellio Joe, her pants are STILL at your house), bicentennial spirit, flamethrowers, Action Jackson, McGann's operation (aren't you glad you can sit down?), Simple, Dimple, and Pimple (how's that for a menage a trois?), Archie celebrating B.O.'s birthday on the Pub Bathroom benches and Todd Forlorn's TET observance on the library lawn.

The invisible man appeared and disappeared behind a bush, Ted and Mimi's personalized bar stools and shuffle board pucks at Charlie's and B.O.'s Towering Inferno were popular topics.

Will Chris Gross ever make it to the Keyes? Another year passes and we grow wiser: "Don't look at girls you can't have"—Astrouk. "Long necks, long horns, long gone"—Alexander. "Where did Hugo?"—The Club.

Also not to be forgotten or dismissed entirely were Lickle, Rash and Stain, Boone, Tommy Wilson and Badnews Wilson (don't skip town, we want our bread back). It's been a long year, it's been a short year. (is that Javal logic?) So it goes.
